STUDENTS: . The 8th grade academic team got off to a slow start and could never recover as they went on to be defeated by Belzer 36-55. Leading scorers for the Flashes were: Jasmine Kalia, Dan Lott, Justin Gault, and Bryce Espiritu. The team sees action in its final regular season match next Wednesday at home against Creston.

The 7th grade Academic Team bounced back from their lost last week with an outstanding win against Belzer of 37-24. The team took the lead early in the game and Belzer could never quite catch up. Top point contributors were J.P. Phillippe with an impressive 13 points, followed by Cameron Wright with 9, and Ethan Donoho with 6. Other point contributors were Josh Rooks, Ben Burk, Amani Khoury, and Katie Jones. A big thank you to Coleton Meredith and Ben Burk for stepping up to help out our team! Congratulations to the team on a fantastic win! Your Flashes are in action next Wednesday for their last home game and will then travel to the Marion County meet on Saturday, February 18th.

The 6th grade Academic Team played 8th graders from Belzer last night in a close match. They led for the entire first half but the evening ended with FTMS trailing 19 to Belzer's 24 points. Our top scorers for the night were Nathan French and Kylie Lewis. Others adding points for East were Saagar Barmeda, Logan Crase, David Gowan, Taylor Lewis, Bailey Murphey, and Carson Whitesell. Great job, 6th grade!
